

What Is CFO ?

Coastal Maine (formerly Acadia) CFO is a non-denominational Christian camp which welcomes any adult seeking to deepen their love of Jesus Christ. A member of the larger "Camps Farthest Out" organization, we offer a Christ-centered, Holy Spirit-led program through which people can encounter God in meaningful ways through prayer. The time away is filled with singing, inspirational talks, a time of creativity, rest and fellowship with small group gatherings of prayer. It is a program built upon prayer and led with prayer. We know God truly answers, so we bring our concerns to Him. If you are joining us for the first time, you will be a stranger for a brief moment, and a friend for eternity.

Gina T Colorio

Gina Colorio prefers to be called Pastor T since T is for her middle name, Teresa, T is for Jesus' last word, τετελεσται... it is finished!...and T is for the Cross. Gina is a Worcester, Massachusetts native, born to a Calabrese father and a Korcare mother. Pastor T and her husband, David Purdy, are parents to nineteen children and nine Grandchildren. Pastor T is a graduate of Assumption College and Yale University where she earned her M. Div. She is a contemplative at heart who shepherds others to ponder who Jesus is -- grace focused! -- and the impact of knowing you are forgiven!

2025 SPEAKERS

Lamplighters are campers who have been asked to give one talk each. This year, we have asked several Coastal Maine campers to share with us how God is working in their lives. Their stories are sure to inspire us. Camps Farthest Out are to be Christian experiences and a speaker should be instrumental in helping others learn that Jesus is Lord. Everyone has their story of how they found Jesus. Come and listen to their journey stories.
